PREFACE

The Secretary of State's office has prepared this brief guide of the recount and contest procedures as printed in Chapter 293 of the Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) and other pertinent sections of the Nevada Constitution, Title 24 Election Laws of NRS and Nevada Administrative Code (NAC). The purpose of this guide is to provide an understanding of the procedures and requirements necessary for demanding and receiving a recount or contesting an election. It is important to note that this guide is for general information only and does not have the force and effect of Nevada law, regulation or rule. Interested parties should obtain the most recent version of NRS and NAC, as Nevada's Election Laws are amended each legislative session and the Election Regulations are updated periodically.

RECOUNT AND CONTEST INFORMATION

This section contains general information relating to all recounts and election contests. The provisions governing recounts and election contests are found in Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) 293.400 through NRS 293.435 and in Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) 293.178 through 293.180.

For race specific recount information, please refer to the sections below relating to statewide recounts, multi-county district recounts, single county district recounts and city recounts. For specific information on election contests, see the section below relating to contests.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A RECOUNT AND AN ELECTION CONTEST?

A contest of an election is an adversary proceeding filed in District Court (except in Assembly, Senate, Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Justice of the Supreme Court races, which are filed with the Secretary of State) between a candidate for public office who has received the greatest number of votes and any other candidate for that office, or, in certain cases any registered voter for the purpose of determining the validity of an election (NRS 293.042). A recount is a recount of votes cast at an election. A candidate at an election or a registered voter may request a recount and/or contest an election.

CAN A RECOUNT AND AN ELECTION CONTEST OCCUR FOR THE SAME OFFICE OR THE SAME BALLOT QUESTION?

Yes. Under the NRS provisions, both a recount and an election contest can occur. However, the election contest must be based on specific statutory grounds as set forth in NRS 293.410.

WHO MAY REQUEST A RECOUNT?

Any defeated candidate or any candidate who ends up in a tie with another candidate may demand and receive a recount of the number of votes received for the candidate and the number of votes received for the person who won the election. The recount is not done for every candidate for that office. Any voter may demand and receive a recount for a ballot question. (NRS 293.400(3); 293.403(1 & 2)).

WHEN MUST THE RECOUNT DEMAND BE MADE?

A recount cannot be demanded prior to the official canvass of the vote. A demand for a recount must be made within three (3) working days after the canvass of the vote. The canvass of the vote is the review of the election results by the Nevada Supreme Court, county commissioners or city council. (NRS 293.032 and NRS 293.403). See pages 4-8 for specific timelines regarding statewide, multi-county districts, single county districts and city recounts.

WHEN DOES THE CANVASS OCCUR?

The canvass of the vote is the review of the election results by the Nevada Supreme Court, County Commissioners or City Council. (NRS 293.032 and NRS 293.403(4)) The canvass must be completed on or before the fifth working day following the election with the results being transmitted to the Secretary of State not more than 6 working days after the election. (NRS 293.387) For the General election, on the fourth Tuesday of November, the Justices of the Supreme Court, or a majority thereof, shall meet with the Secretary of State, and shall open and canvass the vote for United States Senator, Representative in Congress, members of the Legislature, State Officers who are elected statewide or by district, District Judges, or District Officers whose districts include areas in more than one county and for and against any question submitted. (NRS 293.395)

HOW IS THE DEMAND FOR A RECOUNT MADE?

A recount cannot be demanded prior to the official canvass of the vote. A demand for a recount must be made within three (3) working days after the canvass of the vote. A demand for a recount for a statewide or multi-county office must be filed in writing with the Secretary of State. A single county demand for a recount must be filed with the County Clerk/Registrar of Voters of that county. A city demand must be filed with the City Clerk. The demand for a recount must be accompanied by a deposit of the estimated cost of the recount made in advance with the appropriate filing officer (NRS 293.403(1)(a) & (b)). Payment can generally be made in cash, cashier's check or certified check. See pages 4-8 for cost determinations.

IS THERE A RECOUNT DEMAND FORM TO BE FILLED OUT?

No. The candidate or voter who would like a recount simply submits a letter stating the office or ballot question for which the recount is requested, and the precincts he/she desires to be recounted, and includes the appropriate advanced deposit for the cost of the recount (NRS 293.403 and 293.404(4)). See pages 4-8 for cost determinations.

AFTER A DEMAND IS MADE IS THERE A TIME DURING WHICH THE RECOUNT MUST OCCUR?

NRS 293.405(3) states the recount must begin within five days after the demand is filed and that the recount must be completed within five days after it has begun. Sundays and holidays are included in determining each five day period. Each county or city may decide to begin a recount at any time during that five-day period after the demand is made. However once the recount has begun, it must be completed within five days.

WHO DETERMINES WHAT PRECINCTS SHALL BE RECOUNTED?

The candidate or voter who demanded the recount shall select five percent (5%) of the precincts, but in no case fewer than three (3) precincts, within each of the affected counties. All of the ballots selected within those precincts for that office will be recounted. If it is a candidate who demands the recount, the candidate must, prior to selecting the precincts, notify each of the other candidates for office (or candidates' authorized representatives) as to which precincts are being selected (NRS 293.404(4)). (The person demanding a recount shall include in the demand for a recount a list, by county, of the precincts selected to be recounted).

WHAT IS THE PROCESS FOR RECOUNTING THE BALLOTS?

NRS 293.404 sets forth the recount process as follows:

- The County Clerk/Registrar of Voters of each county shall employ a Recount Board, which shall conduct the recount. (Please see NAC 293.178 for membership restrictions).
- The County Clerk/Registrar of Voters shall act as the chairman of the Recount Board (unless the recount is for the office of County Clerk).
- The County Clerk/Registrar of Voters shall unseal and give to the Recount Board all ballots to be recounted.
- The Recount Board shall examine all of the ballots from the selected precincts to determine whether the ballots were voted in accordance with state election laws.
- This process is the same for city recounts.

WHO CAN OBSERVE THE RECOUNT?

The public and each candidate and/or the candidate's representative may observe the recount, but observers may not challenge ballots or interfere in any way with the determination of the Recount Board as to how ballots are counted. Observers are subject to removal if they interfere in the counting procedures (See NRS 293B.353 and Attorney General's Opinion No. 175 (Nov. 25, 1974), a copy of which is included in the Appendix).

DOES THE SECRETARY OF STATE OBSERVE THE RECOUNT?

A County Clerk/Registrar of Voters may request the Secretary of State or his designated representative to observe the recount (NAC 293.179).

WHEN WILL THE RESULTS OF THE RECOUNT BE RELEASED TO THE PUBLIC?

The results of a recount must be canvassed within five (5) working days after completion of the recount. (NAC 293.1785). After the canvass of the recount is completed, the County Clerk/Registrar will notify the Secretary of State of the results. The Secretary of State will release the results to the public when the results from all affected counties are received. (NRS 293.387)

MAY THE PERSON WHO DEMANDS A RECOUNT WITHDRAW THE DEMAND?

Yes, a withdrawal of a demand for a recount must be made in writing to the appropriate filing officer and can be requested at any time before the completion of the recount. However, a person who withdraws the demand for a recount may not request a new recount or that the recount begin again (NAC 293.179). That person will also be responsible for the costs accrued by the county or city up until the recount is stopped.

STATEWIDE RECOUNTS

This section contains information specific to statewide office and statewide ballot question recounts only. Statewide races are those which are voted upon by all voters of the entire state of Nevada. (See Attorney General Letter Opinion dated August 11, 1982, a copy of which is included in the Appendix). The filing officer for statewide offices is the Secretary of State (NRS 293.057 and 293.185).

If a registrar of voters has not been appointed for the county, the chairman of the board of county commissioners, if he is not a candidate on the ballot, shall act as chairman of the recount board. If the recount is for the office of county clerk, a registrar of voters has not been appointed for the county and the chairman of the board of county commissioners is a candidate on the ballot, the chairman of the board of county commissioners shall appoint another member of the board of county commissioners who is not a candidate on the ballot to act as chairman of the recount board. A member of the board of county commissioners who is a candidate on the ballot may not serve as a member of the recount board.

(b) City clerk shall employ a recount board to conduct the recount in the city, and shall act as chairman of the recount board unless the recount is for the office of city clerk, in which case the mayor of the city, if he is not a candidate on the ballot, shall act as chairman of the recount board. 3. Except in counties or cities using a mechanical voting system, the recount must include a count and inspection of all ballots, including rejected ballots, and must determine whether those ballots are marked as required by law.

4. If a recount is demanded in a county or city using a mechanical voting system, the person who demanded the recount shall select the ballots for the office or ballot question affected from 5 percent of the precincts, but in no case fewer than three precincts, after notification to each candidate for the office or his authorized representative. The recount board shall examine the selected ballots, including any duplicate or rejected ballots, shall determine whether the ballots have been voted in accordance with this title and shall count the valid ballots by hand. In addition, a recount by computer must be made of all the selected ballots. If the count by hand or the recount by computer of the selected ballots shows a discrepancy equal to or greater than 1 percent or five votes, whichever is greater, for the candidate demanding the recount or the candidate who won the election according to the original canvass of the returns, or in favor of or against a ballot question, according to the original canvass of the returns, the county or city clerk shall order a count by hand of all the ballots for that office or ballot question. If the sum deposited is in excess of the cost, the excess must be refunded to him.

2. If the person who demanded the recount prevails, the sum deposited with the Secretary of State, county clerk or city clerk must be refunded to the person and the cost of the recount must be paid as follows:

CARSON CITY, November 25, 1974

THE HONORABLE WM. D. SWACKHAMER, Secretary of State, The Capitol, Carson City, Nevada 89701

DEAR MR. SWACKHAMER:

One of the candidates for the Office of United States Senator from Nevada in the recent general election has indicated to you that he will demand a recount after the Supreme Court canvass on November 27, 1974. You have requested the advice of this office on the nature of the recount.

FACTS

The general election was held on November 5, 1974. There was an election for the Office of United States Senator on the ballot and one of the candidates received, in the unofficial tally, 620 votes more than his opponent. His opponent indicated he would seek a recount after the Supreme Court, pursuant to NRS 293.395, canvassed the vote.

QUESTIONS

Is a recount merely another count of the vote, or is it a procedure whereby the candidates may challenge the legality of the ballots? In this connection, must ballots, which are counted by electronic computer, be counted by hand or once again be counted by the computer?

ANALYSIS

There appears to be some question in the cases researched as to whether a recount is but a mathematical count of ballots previously canvassed and recorded on the tally sheet, or whether it is a recanvass of the votes involving determination as to whether ballots were properly allowed for the original counting. It is certain that a recount is not an election contest. See Words and Phrases, "Recount." Election recounts and election contests are separate proceedings. State ex rel. Booth v. Board of Ballot Commissioners, 196 S.E.2d 299 (W.Va., 1973); 29 C.J.S., Elections § 291. A contest is an adversary proceeding, or suit, between a candidate certified as elected and one not certified for the purpose of determining the validity of an election. McClendon v. McKeown, 323 S.W.2d 542 (Ark. 1959); see also Words and Phrases, "Contest." The differentiation between recount and contest is found in the statutory scheme of NRS 293.400 et seq. There are different procedures stated for each.

It is also certain that recounts and contests did not exist at common law. Therefore, they are subject solely to statutory interpretation. They are special proceedings regulated by statute only. In re Parson, 76 Nev. 442, 357 P.2d 120 (1960); 26 Am.Jur.2d, Elections, § 295. The applicable statute for the conduct of a recount is NRS 293.404. Section 1 sets up the recount board, while section 2 describes the basic procedure for recounts. Section 2 provides that:

The recount shall include a count of all ballots, including rejected ballots, and shall determine whether such ballots are marked as required by law. The county clerk shall have authority to unseal and give to the recount board all ballots to be counted. (Italics added.)

The statute specifically orders the recount board to inspect each ballot and to determine if each is marked as required by NRS 293.293 and 293.367. By this provision, the recount board conducts the recount in the same manner as was done by the election board in the original count of the ballots after the general election. In other words, in Nevada, a recount is but a replay of the procedures for inspecting and counting the ballots as was done immediately after the general election.

These inspections and determinations are to be the sole responsibility, as provided by NRS 293.404, of the recount board. The position of the candidates or their representatives is to function merely as observers with no power to challenge ballots or interfere in any way with the determination of the recount board in which ballots are to be counted or in how the ballots are to be counted. Such observers are in the same position as observers of the political parties or candidates on election night. See Rules 35 and 39 of the "Rules and Regulations for the Conduct of Primary and General Elections Promulgated by the Secretary of State." In both instances they are to merely observe and are subject to removal if they interfere in the counting procedures. If such observers believe that illegal ballots are being counted in the recount, they may record such information for their own use in bringing a contest action. Such observers, however, may not challenge ballots. The recount board alone determines which ballots are to be counted and how they are to be counted.

As additional reasoning for this view, we would note NRS 293.391, subsection 3, which states that ballots deposited with the county clerk shall not be subject to the inspection of anyone, except in cases of contested elections. The purpose of this statute, originally enacted in 1879, was to prevent tampering with the ballots by prohibiting anyone but the county clerks from handling, receiving or inspecting the ballots. State v. Baker and Josephs, 35 Nev. 1 (1912). This statute has been modified by NRS 293.404 by permitting an official recount board to inspect such ballots. However, the original intent remains. No one but the county clerk or his designated recount board, of which the county clerk serves as chairman, may handle, receive or inspect ballots. A candidate or his representative may, however, observe the entire process.

What this means in terms of counting ballots for the recount is as follows. In the case of noncomputer ballots, a recount board hand counts the ballots, determining which ballots are to be counted. In the case of computer ballots, a recount board first inspects the ballots to determine which ballots are to be counted and then proceeds to count such ballots by means of an electronic computer. In both instances, the decision on which ballots to count and how they are to be counted lies with the recount board. In both instances, the candidates or their representatives are merely limited to roles as observers and may not interfere in the recount process. They may merely observe for the purpose of detecting irregularities which may later serve as the basis of a contest.

CONCLUSION

A recount, according to Nevada law, involves a determination by a recount board in each county as to which ballots may be counted and then the recount board proceeds to count such ballots. The process is the same as the process followed by the election boards on election night. In the case of noncomputer ballots, such ballots are hand counted by the recount boards, whereas in the case of computer ballots, such ballots are first inspected to see if they are in accordance with Nevada law on marking ballots and are then counted, as on election night, by electronic computer.

The candidates or their representatives may act as observers, but only as observers. They may not challenge ballots or interfere in any way with the counting of ballots. If observers note any irregularities in the counting of ballots, they may contest such irregularities only through an election contest.

Dear Bill:

Re: Meaning of "Statewide Office"
as used in NRS 293.269

You have requested advice from this office as to the meaning of the phrase "statewide office" as the same appears in NRS 293.269. This statute provides that every ballot upon which appears the names of candidates for any statewide office or for president and vice president of the United States shall contain for each office an additional line which allows the voter to indicate that he favors "none of these candidates." This option, however, is to be made available by law to voters only with respect to statewide offices and the office of the president or vice president of the United States.

The phrase "statewide office" is not defined in NRS 293.269 or elsewhere in Chapter 293 of the Nevada Revised Statutes. Likewise, we have not found any reported decision of the Nevada Supreme Court defining "statewide office." Under such circumstances, we must look elsewhere for relevant authority.

The term "statewide office" was defined in the case of Vaughn v. Boone, 62 A.2d 351, 353 (Md. 1948) as embracing all offices to be filled by voters of the entire state. This court approved definition of the term "statewide office" appears consistent with the definition set forth at page 2462 of Webster's New International Dictionary (2nd ed.), i.e., "extending throughout the length and breadth of a state; including all parts of a state."

Based upon the limited authorities available, it is the opinion of this office that the term "statewide office" as the same appears in NRS 293.269 means only those offices whose incumbents are selected by all the the voters of the entire State of Nevada.

The 1981 Legislature, having been advised by the appropriate federal authorities that two individuals could now be elected from Nevada to the House of Representatives, divided the state into two congressional districts. Only those voters residing in a particular congressional district will be able to cast their vote to select a member of Congress from that district. Therefore, the congressional districts would not appear to be a "statewide office" within the meaning of NRS 293.269, and the option of casting a vote for "none of these candidates" is not available by law with respect to those races.

We trust the above satisfactorily answers your inquiry concerning the definition for the term "statewide office" and in particular its application to the new congressional districts. If we may be any further assistance on this or other matters of mutual concern, please advise.

Sincerely,

RICHARD H. BRYAN
Attorney General
